

The Official JumpATK Scandal Document

[PSA] The previously released doc was not intended to be leaked to the public in the state it was in. It was not completed and had no proper censorship or consent was given at that time. It was an error on our part. I would like to say thank you to all the victims whom consented to sharing their story. Any victim's stories that have their name censored will be referred to as Anonymous (Variable).

As a preface to this document, we would like to start off with who JumpATK is. He's a GMS player whose name is widely known in the end-game community. He's one of the strongest players "stat-wise", but that's besides the point. This just means that he has a strong presence in the GMS reboot community.

Within the past week of investigating, we have found many offenses that Jump has done and should be brought to light. A few of those things consist of harassing a lot of women in the GMS reboot community, black mail, faking relationship with a lot of women who have rejected him, a pathological liar, and verbal abuse / gaslighting. As of right now we can confirm about 8-10 women who are victims to his harassment and JumpATK allegedly telling people he had a fake relationship / thing with. These are just a couple of things we have caught Jump for, more will be addressed later in this document.

Let's go into how Jump was caught for everything. This is one of his biggest lies which led us to uncover everything alongside with it. JumpATK would tell us that he is currently dating Casey, the leader of Savages in secret. He would tell us that nobody knows about this and that it should never get out. He would often tell us that they will open up about it at "said date" then when said date happens, he would push it back to months later and so on. Around the end of October 2021 or start of November he told us about a vacation with himself and Casey. The itinerary consisted of Casey going to him in Norcal for a week, and for another week go to Socal and share an AirBNB together. As far fetched as the stories he has told us and incriminating alleged private DM logs he would show, we had never bothered suspecting him. These DMs were often explicit, it was hard to believe at first glance, but at the same time, "why would he lie about this?" It could've been easily fact checked if we messaged the other party. This was the mindset we and many other people had when Jump would show / tell us anything remotely outrageous. About a week ago, our group went to Howard whom is close to Casey and we had told him about this alleged vacation Jump had with Casey and he denied that has ever happened. Proof was shown that Casey never even step foot outside of her home country. Howard and Casey themselves meet on the weekly basis in person with proof, that proof will not be shared in this doc. For obvious privacy reasons. So that there would be no way, she could have left the country and visited Jump like he said they would. Our first reaction to all of this was disbelief. Because Jump would talk about this vacation every single day leading up to it and during the event. It was around this time we were reached out to about Jump allegedly faking a lot of DM logs.

So, we showed one of the DM logs Jump created with himself and Howard. The first reaction Howard had was laugh about this whole thing and immediately screen shared with me his DM logs with Jump. It was completely Blank. They have never spoke to one another over discord.

Howard Today at 2:28 AM

fuck you piece of shit
i got to kiss her at least you'll never ever
i'll fuck you up

Message @Howard

The body pictures that jump show of "himself" were actually fake and were back traced to a person name Richard Tan.

This wasn't the first time Jump has ever used faked pictures to represent himself. Below you will see a screenshot of the #selfies section in Imperium.

As well as the first picture, we quickly proved this one was fake as well. This face picture belongs to Jase_Ski.

So, Jump has used the body of Richard Tan and the face of Jason. Over the past year Jump would show us random pictures of "himself" and seldomly, "his mom." Which came from the Jason's Instagram. I will not be posting it, because I don't want to spam multiple pictures from the same account.

So, after our conversation with Howard, we concluded that Jump has lied about his entire vacation which was huge. Because he had annoyed us every single day in regards to this. After this, we wanted to know how long has he been lying to us, in regards to anything he has ever told us.

Up until this point, he has lied to us about his image, his relationship, and fake DM logs with Howard to perpetuate a narrative that he's more chad (lack for a better word) than him.

From this point on forward we will start with sharing the stories of his victims. We are only sharing screenshots / stories of those whom consented to being on this document. So please note that there are many victims out there because of Jump but wish to not disclose their information or stories for privacy reasons.

1. Imperium's story

To preface, Imperium is a guild where they take on motivated players who have end game aspirations and offer the proper resources / advice to reach that goal. Although they bring up aspiring players, their main focus has always been community focused.

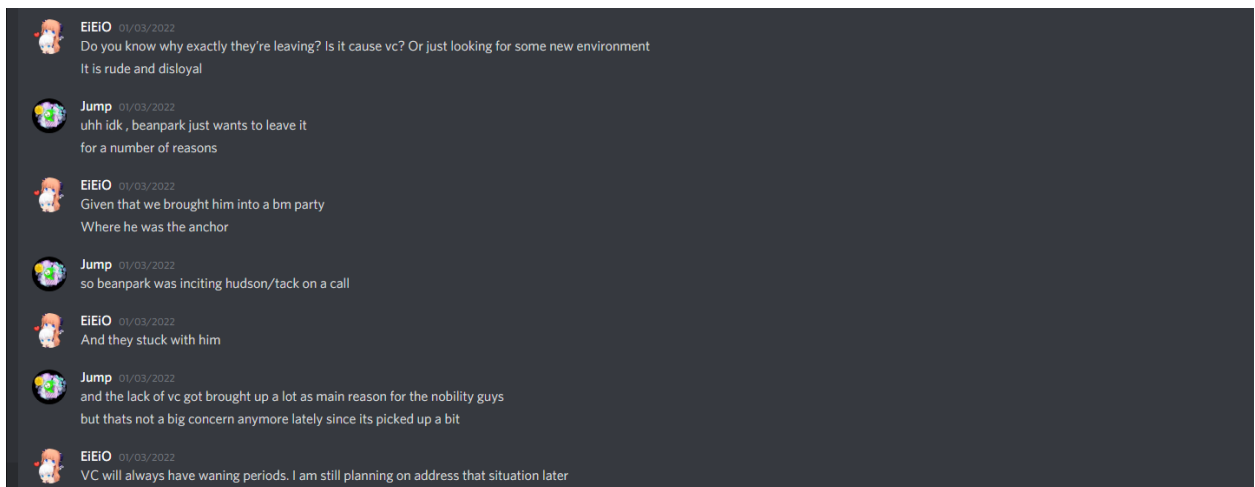

JumpATK had joined Imperium on his all his characters around March 2021, his DB (JumpATK), his mage (JumpMATK), and his 2nd PC Kanna mule (Haipob). At first the community was excited because JumpATK promised to join the guild alongside a group of end game players to further Imperium's rapidly growing strength. Soon after his arrival his presence became apparent after becoming a usual main VC attendee. Because of this, a lot of members who regularly joined VC started showing up less then never at all. Jump's personality could only be summed up as, lack for a better word, vulgar. As well as possessing overbearing opinions on many subjects.

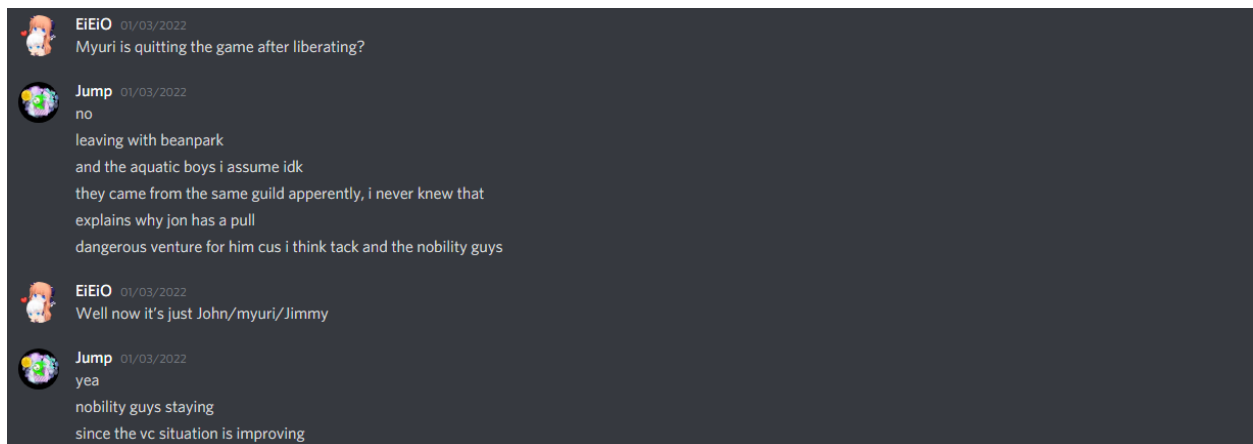

He would often complain that a small portion of the community was not as "sweaty" as he wanted everyone to be. But, his definition of sweaty is a lot different than anyone else's opinion of being sweaty. Jump would consistently bring up this topic in main VC when everyone wanted to vibe, which often brought down the mood. As well as messaging the guild leader at the time about it. He would refer to this small portion of the community as casuals or shitters, and treat them as if they shouldn't exist at all. This led to resentment from this portion of the community and the main VC attendees. Because the main VC was always around this negative environment that he created, slowly they started to share a bit of his mindset which caused mutual hatred towards each other.

Around end of summer 2021, this is where the fake DM logs start to come into play. JumpATK would often show DM logs he created about JRs he heavily disliked to have us hate them and partake in talking shit towards them. It got to the point that a small fraction of the main VC members was caught talking shit because of all the allegations from fake DM logs Jump has portrayed. These DM logs showed that a JR in Imperium alongside 5-10 other members are going to leave Imperium and join Savages. Which caused heavy animosity between the two groups, which led to a lot of JRs being kicked off the team, and in the end removed from the community. This has all been brought to light and we found out the truth last week after fact checking all the information we've gathered from both parties. This group was never going to leave and join Savages. We've also fact checked this information with a JR / Guild Leader of Savages.

- END (Below will be screenshots of Jump manipulating his way to change the guild's way of running / pinning us towards one another

To understand this conversation, Jump messaged the leader of Imperium at the time with "information" about a group leaving Imperium for another guild. This is a group of people whom joined Imperium together about over a year ago. As well as being one of the main participants of VC culture. This was in fact a lie to pin on beanpark is gathering a group of people to leave the guild for another. We're very close to this group, old guild leader included. We know that there'd be no reason for this group to leave Imperium as they are our close friends we talk to everyday.

2. V's Story

TW / TAGS: Gaslighting, faking relationship, and sexual harassment

This is one of the many women who were brave enough to share their story and experience with JumpATK. To preface, Jump would often try to hit up girls in their DMs to start initial contact with them. Afterwards he will then tell these girls that he wants to have a separate discord with them, to call, chat, and watch stuff together in private. The reason for this is that if things end up going South for Jump, he would boot them from the server and the women will not have proof of anything that happened in there.

Jump would often share his "interactions" with V to a small group of us. Showing us DMs and telling us that V likes him and that they once met up with each other for 45 minutes or so getting Ramen. One day he confessed to V that he saw potential in this being a relationship and that they are compatible with one another (without even asking V's opinion on it lol... He just assumed every girl in this situation felt the same). V then rejected him and told him that she does not feel the same and was very clear that nothing is going to happen between them.

Quick note: This is happening during a timeframe he was telling a small group of us that he was dating the leader of Savages in secret lol...

Below you will see that it was very clear that V had no intentions or even a thought of sharing feelings towards Jump (who would lmao). After stating clear intentions that this will not happen, Jump does what he does best and starts gaslighting the shit out of V. Claiming that, he knew this wasn't going to work out and starts pointing flaws within V (which aren't even flaws LOL). One of them stating that "she goes out too much." And he didn't like that. Then proceeds to say that he will try again with Stella.

Quick Note 2: Same as the first quick notes above with the added note that Jump told our small group that He wouldn't go back to Stella unless she fixed her jealousy.

it is that simple
if thigns progress as i envisioned, then great.
we're 40-60mins away from each other , and that personal discord and he starts jacking off to me but i didnt know.. until midway? Cause he told me... and i didnt know what to say and left the vc.

Royal V Today at 12:51 AM i think 1 last thing i want to add towards the end is he did call me to come back to vc to apologize for jacking off BUT i shouldnt have been put in that situation in the first place. He also asked if i could just stay there muted/deafen while he does it i said no.

3. Kavil's Story

Tags: Gaslighting

To introduce, Kavil is an aspiring Kanna main who wishes to be among the best. Currently ranked #1 Kanna in GMS reboot. Unfortunately for Kavil, he met JumpATK due to his goals for the game, it heavily attracted Jump towards him. Jump would often project his ideals and try to convince him to join Savages with him one day. He would often scapegoat hot takes of his opinions onto Kavil as Kavil isn't the type of person to say anything about it.

Jump would always advocate and talk about something he would like to call a Private Sector. Which consisted of a small group of end-game players who wish to be one of the bests in the server in terms of gameplay and stat. But, in actuality it was a small group that Jump has conned into carrying end game bosses for him to make up for his lack of skill.

Kavil unfortunately agreed to duo a lot of the major end game bosses to share loot priority with Jump. (Jump is 60k stat on his mage and 66-67k on his thief, he shouldn't need to be duoing. To bring back what was stated above, "conned into carrying end game bosses for him to make up for his lack of skill"). One day, Kavil was fed up with bossing with Jump due to gaslighting and accommodating his shit schedule. So, he wanted to leave the party and form his own or solo for loot priority. After conveying he wanted to stop bossing with Jump, Jump then proceeded to heavily gaslight Kavil and try to make him feel like shit. Stating that he's a shitty person for screwing Jump himself over.

like i dont get it

i was just wanting to duo til i lib

but now im forced to solo cus im fucked over

koi 11/18/2021

i'm not sure what to say

because it'll just look like an excuse

Jump 11/18/2021

it was never too late to the right thing

but its not ur problem i guess

as long as it doenst concern you usually how the world works

hopefully no one does this to you lmfao

then you'd know how shitty of a person you were to me right this moment

Jump 11/18/2021

yea ig if ur content with trio loot forever on a ring

u just want easy way out of parties

koi 11/18/2021

my intention was to just 1 run and done cgloom/hdarknell

Jump 11/18/2021

so you'd rather have that than improve mechanics and actually get good this isn't how you improve thats how you end up with ringers mentality (edited)

koi 11/18/2021

cuz khiem and daniel have a set schedule that doesn't interfere with my farming schedule

Jump 11/18/2021

where ppl will lib for u

koi 11/18/2021

yea i agree with you, it's not good for mechanics and pb loot
but right now i'm still in farmers mentality

Jump 11/18/2021

koi 11/18/2021

i'm still in a pt for hluwill lmao

koi 03/18/2022

with this current seren pt i get blueballed weekly

OreoKrispy 03/18/2022

Ur stock is relatively low either way

I mean just leave now if you have such issues with it

I don't know what to say

I feel like ur indirectly blaming or punishing him

And it's starting to really piss me off

- Oreokrispy is the 2nd fake discord account Jump has made to pose it as Casey (Leader of Savages). In this scenario he'd go onto multiple accounts to flame Kavi.

4. Anon Z's Story

Tags: Manipulation

To start off, Anon Z was very close to Jump for several years. They were best friends up until this point. For the time frame of this story, Anon Z has already been broken up with their partner and Jump knew this fact. But Jump had close connections to the both of them separately. As time went on, the relationship between Anon Z and his ex-partner has soured up to the point where they were not on speaking terms anymore. The reason for this was because Jump would show fake DM logs of himself and Anon Z's ex painting his ex in a very bad light. Which led to resentment and hatred towards the ex, so Anon Z cut off all communications with them. Jump's goal was to break them apart and make sure they don't speak to one other.

Now that they were not on speaking terms, that's where this takes a bit of a spin and my group gets involved. Jump would on the daily basis, message us in our group chat explaining that Anon Z's ex was heavily interested in him. As well as showing damning DMs which made it believable. We're not exactly sure why he keeps showing us DMs of multiple girls' interest at this point. As they were too many and they all sounded the same. This is still the same time-frame that Jump would tell us that he's secretly dating Casey and waiting for Stella... We'd often tell Jump why he even bothers keeping up this charade, like why does he want to go through so much trouble every day, because the fake DMs he created that we believed, looked to be a stressful environment that Jump has put himself into on the daily basis. But obviously that was all fake and he wanted to put himself into that scenario regardless if it was fake.

Note: Unfortunately for privacy reasons, anyone who have chosen to censor their name from their stories will have no screenshots attached. I'm sorry for the inconvenience of this and hope you guys understand.

5. Anon C's Story

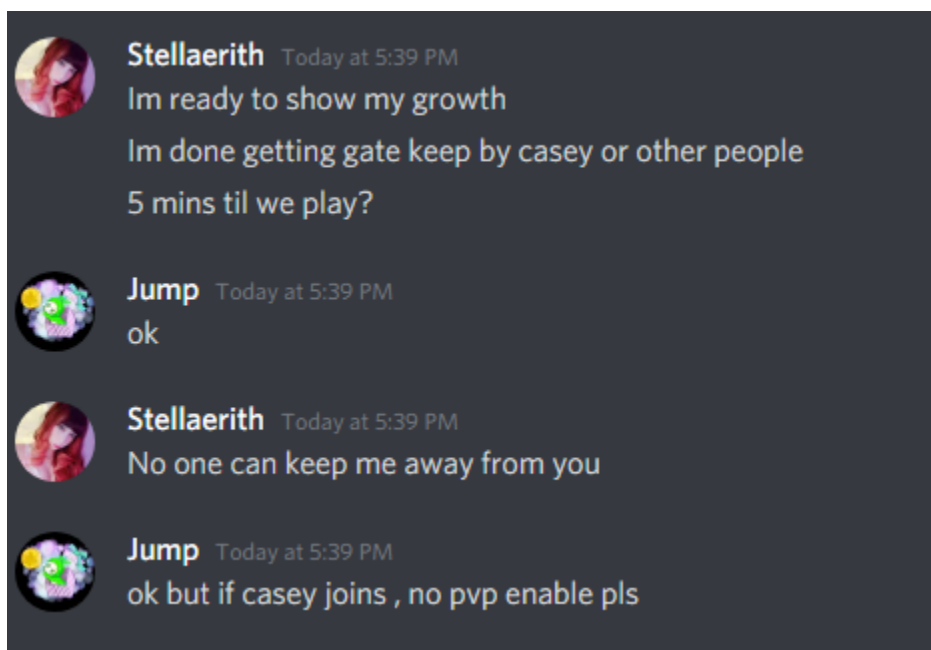

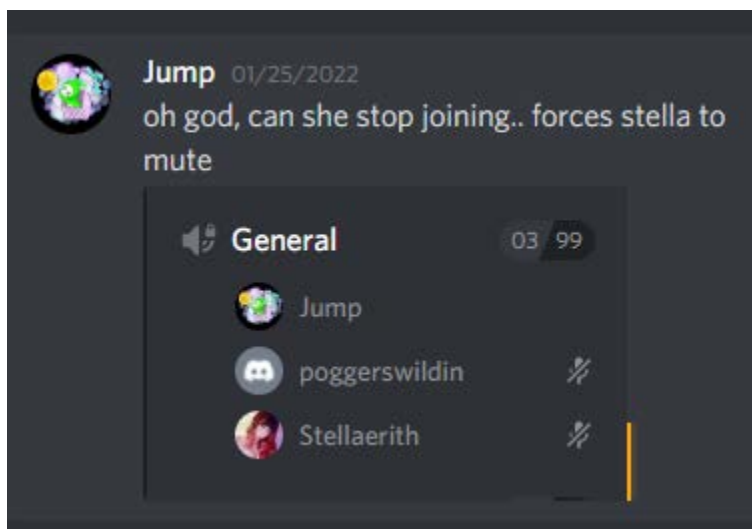

Tags: Harassment / Verbal Abuse / Gaslighting

Anon C is someone whom joined Imperium VC to Kanna for Jump's bossing. Jump would heavily verbally abuse Anon C in call for any small mistake. Almost every week Jump would take his words too far, one example is telling her that this is why she isn't attractive, because she makes mistakes in bossing. As I mentioned earlier, he would even do this in public Imperium discord, so a lot of us felt uncomfortable to the verbal abuse that we witness. I'd often leave voice call whenever it's time for their bossing, because it gets a bit too much sometimes. We'd often chastise him for his behavior but he'd deflect and double down on how poor skill in a video game isn't attractive to him.

Jump would also show us fake DMs that she's heavily into him, which at this point is a common scenario. Any girl that Jump has come in contact to, he has to make sure he has painted the narrative that they are into him one-sidedly. Which at first this was the reasoning we all came to believe to make sense of why she continued to boss with him weekly. But after speaking with her personally, she felt bad because Jump would often express that he needed help with bossing and she felt like she had to help.

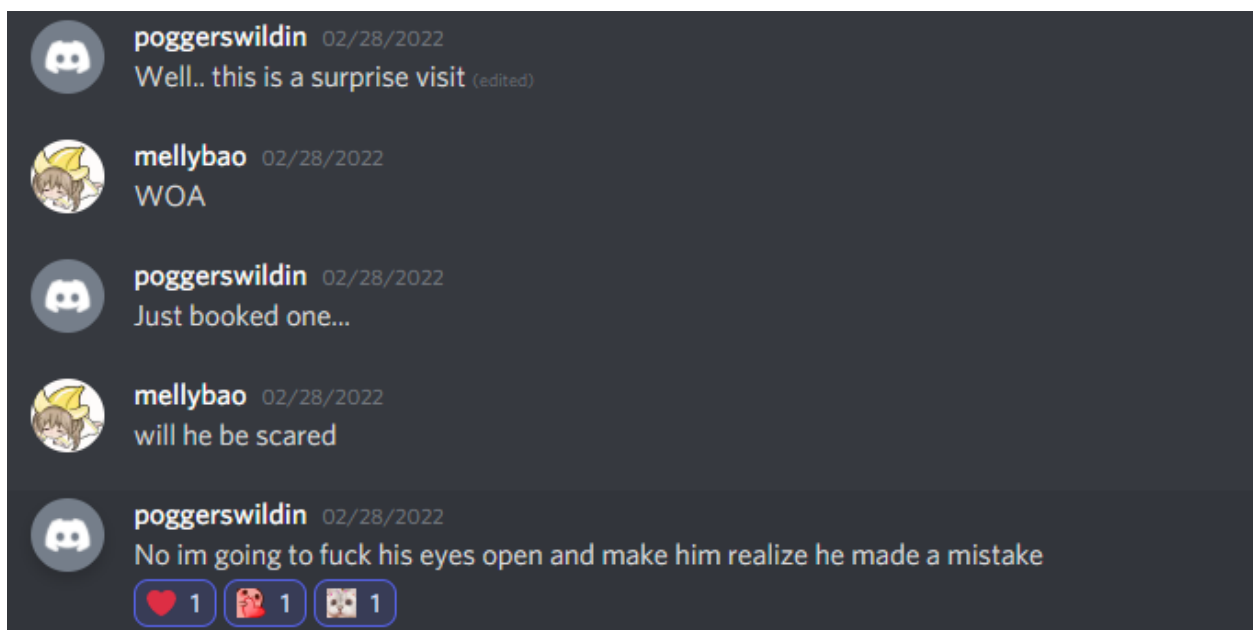

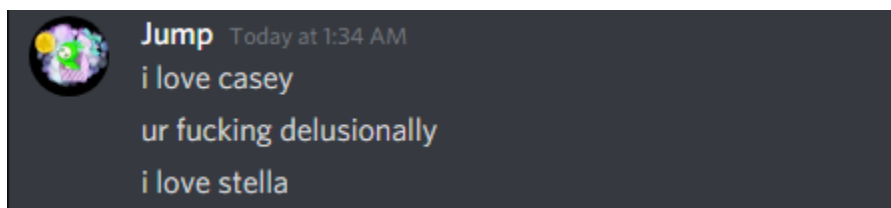

Extra Notes:

We came to believe one of Jump's main goals was to perpetuate a love triangle between himself, Casey, and Stella. With him being the common denominator. There would be DMs created to display civil war amongst Stella and Casey fighting over JumpATK himself. This has been happening for almost a year of forged DMs of this civil war. He would often add numerous girls into the equation to upkeep this image that he's a popular guy.

To explain some of these screenshots, he'd tell us that he has a secret relationship with Casey which has been proven fake. And add that he's just waiting for Stella to fix her jealousy issues to go back to her in the end.

One of the many truths exposed is that JumpATK was insanely infatuated with Casey to the point of obsession. We have proof of 2 fake discord accounts Jump has introduced as Casey to be brought into imperium and start drama with multiple people. He would often pose as her to diminish her reputation with multiple people within the end game community.

The fake discord accounts he created was called poggerswilding & crispyoreo.

Message @Emmi

Emi's interactions with Jump was that similar to V's story, where Jump would create a discord with just the two of them. But, this time around she completely shut him off and expressed multiple times she wasn't interested. But would tell everyone otherwise.

Unfortunately, all these cases don't exclude to just girls, we have multiple guys where Jump would tell us that a couple guys are gay for him. I will not be including their names as there are not enough screenshots to provide for them.

Conclusion:

The purpose of this official document is to show clarity about Jump's actions and expose them. The other main purpose would be to give the many victims who chose to share their experience a platform. We want to bring this all to light so that there would be no more victims because of him. It has gone far enough and should be stopped. Please respect the privacy of those whom shared their experience and respect those who chosen to not give out their identities.

I would like to thank everyone who contributed into the efforts of fact checking multiple sources and figuring out all the lies Jump has created up until this point.
